

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

I work nights and this has been a blessing. I now receive very few calls and it is most wonderful.